Hey there—it's Verl. I noticed you hadn't moved on getting Leverage '23 tickets yet, and I wanted to make sure you didn't miss out on our Early Bird pricing.

Leverage is the only real estate conference designed to make your team the Greatest Of All Teams. It's the secret sauce behind hundreds of successful teams across the country.

I love showing people just how much more they can get done on an effective team—think the US Olympic Swim Team or the Jordan-Era Chicago Bulls. The right team led the right way produces results beyond what any one person can do alone. That's what Leverage is all about.

And I want you there. If you get your tickets before February 1st, you'll get the lowest price of 2023. Don't sleep on this: make the commitment today and sign your whole team up for the kind of success you know they deserve.
