P.S. Since you're one of my top earners, I've got something extra-special planned: I asked Verl to stick around for an extra hour – just so you can pick his brain about the industry and learn from one of the most successful guys I know. Be sure to tune back in at _____ so you can benefit from Verl's wealth of knowledge. This is just for my top team members, so you should get all the time you need to ask Verl specific questions.
